

Badboy

Donell Jones

Said I'm thinking bout that day you ran up on me
How did you get fucking, took one [?]
Baby I was wrong but her body was calling me
How could I be so dumb?
Cos one woman should be enough

I'm just a bad boy
Trying to be good
Trying to live right
Trying to do right by my baby
Like I know I should, girl
I'm just a bad boy
Trying to be good
From the ghetto
Trying to let go
But one thing's for sure, I love you

See I had to learn to be a man all on my own, baby
Cos all the men I knew [?]
Yeah like I appreciate how you've been down for me
I'm gonna make it up to you watch and see
It might take some time but trust me I'm gonna get it right

I'm just a bad boy
Trying to be good
Trying to live right
Trying to do right by my baby
Like I know I should, girl
I'm just a bad boy
Trying to be good
From the ghetto
Trying to let go
But one thing's for sure, I love you

Listen girl I know you heard it all before (I never meant to hurt you babe)
And girl please don't take it personal (I just don't know babe)
And girl I know you could've left me a long time ago
I know you're fed up with my shit and I'm sorry baby, but I

I'm just a bad boy
Trying to be good
Trying to live right
Trying to do right by my baby
Like I know I should, girl
I'm just a bad boy
Trying to be good
From the ghetto
Trying to let go
But one thing's for sure, I love you
