

We Can't Hide

Donkeyboy

up and go here we are you /// see what you won't get far (?) another day, but it's all the same

up and go
we can't hide
now the day (another day) without you(r) smile

stay away from me now 'cause may be you will see what you wanna see

and sometimes in life repeat you fine (?)
and i'm with a little broken heart for you my feel's sad when i see how bad people can be ask myself what went wrong

thoughts of a better life w// (will) strong, too strong for me to take and now that she reminds regrets will haunt me down
