

Does It Matter

Donna Fargo

There was a time I was afraid to love or be loved
And hurting was for the weak and not the strong
And I've gone through all kinds of things on promises
And I still don't know the difference
Between right and wrong

I keep hearing myself asking me who am I
And what is it I'm trying so hard to do
And I'm not sure
I've ever trusted anyone completely

But does it matter
That I took a chance on you
Does it matter
That I took a chance on loving you
When I didn't even believe in me
Does it matter at all to you
That I wanted to be what you wanted me to

And I wanted so much to be just right for you
I guess it's just my nature to ask questions
So I hope that you don't mind much when I do
And even though I know
I'll never know all of the answers

Does it matter
That I took a chance on you
Does it matter at all to you
That I wanted to be what you wanted me to
Does it matter
That I took a chance on you
