

The Mark

Donna Lewis

You map me out
So carefully
Connecting to the core

Line me up
Spread my wings
I can do it
Give me something to hold tight
Tell me when
Tell me when I can breathe out
Trace the flow of my body
Leave your mark
But don't leave me
Tell me when
Tell me when I can breathe out

Pin point the distance
Pin point the wavebands
Move my head in the right direction
Everything in true perfection

Line me up
Spread my wings
I can do it
Give me something to hold tight
Tell me when
Tell me when I can breathe out
Trace the flow of my body
Leave your mark
But don't leave me
Tell me when
Tell me when I can breathe out

Sounds to words
There's a white light somewhere
Sounds to words
Deep breath red light on

Sounds to words
There's a white light somewhere
Sounds to words
Deep breath red light on

Line me up
Spread my wings I can do it
I can do it
Leave your mark on me

Line me up
Spread my wings I can do it
I can do it
Leave your mark but don't leave me

Line me up
Spread my wings I can do it
Give me something to hold tight
Tell me when

Tell me when I can breathe out

I can breathe out
