

Skyline

Donna Missal

When you dive in the deep end
And the shadow is speaking
Now you're back at the beginning
Sky, sky, sky, sky, skyline
In the void where you parted
Looking out on the horizon
To the golden hour sundown

Run from the valley, oh
Down from the mountain
Back to where it started

I don't wanna see you like this
Looking over for you
Standing on your shoulder
When you're in a low, when you're in a low
I don't want to go there anymore
Hanging on your weak end weekends
I don't want to see you like them

When you dive in the deep end
And the shadow is speaking
Now you're back at the beginning
Sky, sky, sky, sky, skyline
In the void where you parted
Looking out on the horizon
To the golden hour sundown

Run from the valley, oh
Down from the mountain
Back to where it started
Skyline
When you dive in the deep end
And the shadow is speaking
Now you're back at the beginning
Skyline

I don't wanna know you no more
Looking over waiting, I know
Pressure to evolve and we're not getting better
Hit it off the rim when you need a swish
I don't wanna know why you bait and switch
I don't wanna see ya like this
I don't wanna know ya like this

Why you take the gold and you throw it in the river,
While you scraping pennies off the bottom of the pool?
I don't wanna see you like I do
Never wanna see you like I do
You will never see you like I will
I don't wanna see you like this
I don't wanna know you like them
I know you are better than that

Now you're back at the beginning
Sky, sky, sky, sky, skyline

Run from the valley, oh
Down from the mountain
Back to where it started
Skyline
