

One More Try

Donnalyn Bartolome

Ha... ha... ha... Nanana ah...
Been thinking about you
And all the things we used to do
Been broken up for a while now
This bottle's half way through

I know it's my fault (my fault)
But I put the blame on you (you)
But we could go 'round for days
'Bout what I did and didn't do

We could talk and just go on and on and on
Saying if I had one more chance
Then I would never let you go

Let's give it one more tryyyyyyyyy tryyyyyyyy tryyyyyyyyy
Yeah yeah Let's give it one more tryyyyyyyyy tryyyyyyyy tryyyyyyyyy
(I want you, I want you back, I want you back, I want you back)
Oh ohh ohh Let's give it one more try

And all of those late nights (late nights)
I'm not picking up your calls
You're trying to explain I wouldn't listen at all (no!)

Twisted things to make sure I'm right
Almost every time we fight
Now I know that I messed up
Is it too late for sorry

We could talk and just go on and on and on
Saying if I had one more chance
Then I would never let you go

Let's give it one more tryyyyyyyyy tryyyyyyyy tryyyyyyyyy
Yeah yeah Let's give it one more tryyyyyyyyy tryyyyyyyy tryyyyyyyyy
(I want you, I want you back, I want you back, I want you back)
Oh ohh ohh Let's give it one more try

Yeah this time I'll do the things I'm supposed to
And all the things I said I won't do
They say if you love someone then let them go
But if I was the one I was like how am I supposed to know

And yeah I remember
Yeah you told me so That I took you for granted
You're always down to roll
You're always down to go
Wherever whenever
And now I'm just here all alone (I'm just here all alone)

We could talk and just go on and on and on
Saying if I had one more chance
Then I would never let you go

Let's give it one more tryyyyyyyyy tryyyyyyyy tryyyyyyyyy
Yeah yeah Let's give it one more tryyyyyyyyy tryyyyyyyy tryyyyyyyyy
(I want you, I want you back, I want you back, I want you back)

Oh ohh ohh Let's give it one more try
