

Cry If You Want To

Donnie Iris

Oh she walks out of her bedroom
With a suitcase in her hand
Past the old house there's a garage
Where they used to make their plans
Now she hopes he'll find his way back there again

Cry if you want to
Take a dive if you want to
Say goodbye if you want to
It's all right
You can cry if you want to
Take a dive if you want to
Say goodbye if you want to
It's all right

He's gone off to fight a battle
For a land he does not know
But the President is angry
And he must put on a show
And he thinks of her just sitting there alone

Cry if you want to
Say goodbye if you want to
It's all right
You can cry if you want to
Take a dive if you want to
Say goodbye if you want to
It's all right
