

Dandelion

Donny Osmond

Day after day I try to please you
Day after day I have to bend
Day after day I feel the softness slip away
And it's leaving me frightened again

I'm a dandelion, dandelion
Frail and frightened of the love that we're in
I'm a dandelion, dandelion
Take me gentle or I'll break in the wind

Time after time I've tried to tell you
Time after time I meant to share
Maybe this time I'll put my feelings all in mine
'Cause the carelessness is more than I can bare

I'm a dandelion, dandelion
Frail and frightened of the love that we're in
I'm a dandelion, dandelion
Take me gentle or I'll break in the wind

I'm a dandelion, dandelion
Frail and frightened of the love that we're in
I'm a dandelion, dandelion
Take me gentle or I'll break in the wind