

Being Together

Donovan Woods

Don't call when you're mad
Don't call me when you're yelling about something
I'm all that you really have
I don't mean that in some threatening way or something
All the places we went, now I've never been
All the pictures you have that I'm not in Overall I'm just glad
Hardly anyone remembers you and I even being together
Hardly anyone remembers you and I even being together
Hardly anyone remembers you and I

I find I'm quite sad
I still find a way to carry on smiling or whatever
But look at you now acting all innocent
Like you don't have a sense of how things might've been, or cou ld've been different
Empty bottles of wine we never drank
When you picture it now does your mind go blank
Overall I'm just glad
Hardly anyone remembers you and I even being together
Hardly anyone remembers you and I even being together
Hardly anyone remembers you and I

It's alright
It's only time
And it carries off our mistakes
It's alright
It's only heartache
And you never get more than you can take
It's alright
It's only time
And it carries off our mistakes
It's alright
It's only heartache
For goodness sake

Hardly anyone remembers you and I
Hardly anyone remembers you and I even being together
Hardly anyone remembers
