Do I Know Your Name?

Donovan Woods

My old flame had hazel eyes
No it feels like I'll never get another one sometimes
But water flows through county lines
No it don't seem to make much difference to the tides

Do I, do I know your name?
Do I, do I know your name?
Kinda always had that feeling
Never gonna love again
Do I, do I know your name?

Come on, love, let's us not fight
We spent a week at your apartment one night
We got snow-covered boats for our no-hope songs
Well it ain't gonna make much difference here tonight

Do I, do I know your name?
Do I, do I know your name?
Kinda always had that feeling
Never gonna love again
Do I, do I know your name?
Do I, do I know your name?

Do I, do I know your name?
Do I, do I know your name?
Do I, do I know your name?
Kinda always had that feeling
Never gonna love again
Do I, do I know your name?
Do I, do I know your name?
