Donovan Woods

When they say your father's name
They're talkin' 'bout a boat
They're not talkin' 'bout him
Cause they don't trust you as far
As they can throw a grenade
How about that? You're gonna get saved
But back then, the ship seemed sunk
I couldn't sleep when I wasn't drunk
I couldn't sleep when I wasn't drunk
But now a bad idea has cut you in two
Oh what to do
Darlin', I just don't know
Darlin', I just don't know
Some things you just let go
Some things you just let go
