

Shadows of Blue

Donovan

The careless goodbye that you gave me
The last of the love that we shared
The hopeless recalling of memory
The first time when once you cared

I wonder if you're thinking of me
Here in the pale moonlight
I'm thinking of you and I'll always
Be wanting you holding me tight

You loved me but did you ever
I live in the visions of you
I hear only phrases you once said to me
Your eyes deep in shadows of blue
Your eyes deep in shadows of blue

You loved me but did you ever
I live in the visions of you
I hear only phrases you once said to me
Your eyes deep in shadows of blue
Your eyes deep in shadows of blue
