

Here to Stay

The Doobie Brothers

Yeah, I'm ridin' wild horses
Grab the reins and fly away
Lost in rock-and-roll heaven
And ya know that it's here to stay

Welcome to the spotlight
And a thousand shades of red
Here to play my music
There's so much to be said
Oh, baby
I'm lost inside a daydream
I'm living in the sound
Still right here believing
So don't bring me down

And you should know
Here's the reason why

Yeah, I'm ridin' wild horses
Grab the reins and fly away
Lost in rock-and-roll heaven
And ya know that it's here to stay

Came so close to losing
I almost said goodbye
And I changed my way of thinking
Now everything's all right

And don't ya know
Here's the reason why

Yeah, I'm ridin' wild horses
Grab the reins and fly away
Lost in rock-and-roll heaven
And ya know that it's here to stay

Everyone's running
Watching the world going by
So what's all the hurry?
We got all the time on our side

Yeah, I'm ridin' wild horses
Ride away
Grab the reins and fly away
Oh, baby
Lost in rock-and-roll heaven
And ya know that it's here to stay

Yeah, I'm ridin' wild horses
Ride on, baby
Grab the reins and fly away
Whoa, darling
Lost in rock-and-roll heaven
And ya know that it's here to stay
And ya know that it's here to stay
And ya know that it's here to stay
