Save Yourself

Dope Lemon

Save yourself
I'm a lost cause
'Cause my mind is in a constant state of war
Hate myself
Love you more
Get out of my life before I ruin yours

Ever feel so down you can't stand yourself?
Look in the mirror
All I see is my mental health
Paranoia has a hold of me
So tired all the time
Feel like I'm in a dream
We're not living in this day and age
Social media is your life like drugs in your veins
And every time I press post, I can't help but cringe
Grab my arm tight double tap addiction syringe

And honestly, I do believe
A little time is all I need
For me to stop this impulsive parade
Act out first, feel pain the next day

Save yourself
I'm a lost cause
'Cause my mind is in a constant state of war
Hate myself
Love you more
Get out of my life before I ruin yours

Remember as I write this song is about love
I'ma explain that crazy power we all love
Recently I met a girl and trust she's a queen
She cares so much emotion I've never seen
And I'm sure some of you can deffo relate
Every time you fall in love you start giving yourself hate
Like how on earth can someone love me?
I hate the self toxicity

I really don't wanna go back to work
But baby, you need to if you wanna make music work
Honestly, I'm thankful, she's a rock
I wanna be by her side at the top

Save yourself
I'm a lost cause
'Cause my mind is in a constant state of war
Hate myself
Love you more
Please get out my life before I ruin yours
'Cause I fuck it then one up it
I'm a love drunk hopeless Muppet
Terrified I might just muck it up again

Save yourself
I'm a lost cause
Get out of my life before I ruin yours
