

Many Thanks

Dope Stars Inc.

you took a reason to blame to make my honor a shame and told just everybody i was like a monster of pain there is no way i could tell the rage i feel in my self why don't you take a shot inside of yourself

so many thanks for your ego many thanks for your stupid way to blame everything on myself
so many thanks for your ego
many thanks for your stupid way to blame everything on my end you never thought was a shame to name a reason to blame like if not everybody knows i am not that monster you say there is a way i can tell

why don't you take a gun and shot in your head

so many thanks for the way you were talking to me so many ways i could tell was so shocking to hear so many times i would just take a shot out of you no matter how now the same i can say that to you there was a time when i was really eager to see how would you dare telling all standing in front of me how would you face looking straight into me
