

A New Low

Dope

Life and love and holidays
Just don't seem as good anymore
As they should anymore
Sex and drugs just ain't the same
They don't feel as good anymore
As they should anymore

Ever since you went away
I'm not the same

I can't remember who I am anymore (I'll take the blame)
I can't remember anything worth living for
My dreams are dead and gone (dead and gone)
My heart's been overdrawn (I'm not the same)
I can't remember anything worth living for

Taking it down to a new low even for me
Taking it down to a new low even for me

Happy birthday to myself
Just don't sing as good anymore
As it could anymore
And knowing you're with someone else
When I can't pick myself off of the floor
Even worse than before

Ever since you went away
I'm not the same

I can't remember who I am anymore (I'll take the blame)
I can't remember anything worth living for
My dreams are dead and gone (dead and gone)
My heart's been overdrawn (I'm not the same)
I can't remember anything worth living for

Taking it down, taking it down to a new low
Taking it down, taking it down to a new low
Taking it down, taking it down flying solo
Taking it down

Taking it down to a new low even for me
Taking it down to a new low even for me
Taking it down to a new low even for me
Taking it down to a new low even for me

Ever since you went away
I'm not the same

I can't remember who I am anymore (I'll take the blame)
I can't remember anything worth living for
My dreams are dead and gone (dead and gone)
My heart's been overdrawn (I'm not the same)
I can't remember anything worth living for

Taking it down to a new low even for me
Taking it down to a new low even for me
Taking it down to a new low even for me

Taking it down to a new low even for me
