Lexapro

Dope

She is everything I'd hope for, the source of all my pain
The one I sing my song's for, the sparkle in my flame
She's gone away, she's gone away and I'm not the same

I'd give away my life for, I'd trade in all my fame
1000 times I'd die for, but she don't feel the same
She's gone away, she's gone away and I'm to blame
She's gone away, she's gone away and I'm not the same
