

I'm feeling all this pressure in my head
Fear of failure is taking over me
I've made allot mistakes so you've said
Now I need a break from the agony

Too many voices outside my head
Now she's rolling over
In all the noise pretty soon we'll all be dead
Thank God it's over
It doesn't mater anyway

How much lower can I go
Terrified about to blow it
How much slower can I row
I'm losing myself in it
How much lower can I go
Horrrified I can't control it
How much slower can I row
I'm losing myself in it

I'm feeling all this pressure in my head
And all the negative is taking over me
Can we lower the stakes before I'm dead
I could use a break from reality

Too many voices outside my head
Now she's rolling over
In all the noise pretty soon we'll all be dead
Thank God it's over
It doesn't matter anyway

How much lower can I go
Terrified about to blow it
How much slower can I row
I'm losing myself in it
How much lower can I go
Horrrified I can't control it
How much slower can I row
I'm losing myself in it

Too many voices outside my head
Thank God it's over
It doesn't matter anyway

How much lower can I go
Terrified about to blow it
How much slower can I row
I'm losing myself in it
How much lower can I go
Horrrified I can't control it
How much slower can I row
I'm losing myself in it
