Wake Up

Dissolved the life in me You crawled inside of me You wanted everything You took it all from me You fucking talk to me So now I'm drunk and I'm miserable And I like it, oh yeah Hooked on junk and I'm pitiful And I like it, oh yeah Wake up For what Wake up For what

I hear you're loney and miserable And I like it, oh yeah Hooked on junk and you're pitiful Do you like it, oh yeah

Wake up For what Wake up For what Dope
