

Believe

Dora Jar

Look at you, puffy eyes
Morning dew, you realize what is out there
Alive, I don't wanna feel alone (Hell no, no, no)
And is there enough air in my life to let me get full grown?

I keep on waiting for your company
Belove, belong, believe in
I feel it so it comes with ease
Belove, belong, believe, yeah
I got lost in the dead of night
Now I wanna make up a new beginning
Feel it and it comes with ease
Belove, belong, believe

Totally unpredictable
So moody, might as well be excited for tonight
I think I'm staying at home (Hell yeah, yeah, yeah)
And you're invited 'cause I'm finding it hard to be alone

I keep on waiting for your company
Belove, belong, believe in
I feel it so it comes with ease
Belove, belong, believe, yeah
I got lost in the dead of night
Now I wanna make up a new beginning
Feel it and it comes with ease
Belove, belong, believe
