

Lagoon

Dora Jar

I'd like to be suddenly discovered by you
When I'm washed up on the shore
And you're traveling through

My heart is a crustacean
Could you come and crack it open?
No backbone, no relationship wreck
I'm on my own

I'm comfortably in pain
My love is a lagoon
Too deep to be known by you
Oh, I'm happily insane
Singin' a lonely tune
My echo bouncin' off the moon

I wanna be medically examined by you
I'll be patient while you collect
Droplets of dew

My mouth is like an open wound
And words are bleeding out
Every secret is a stain upon the memory couch

I'm comfortably in pain
My love is a lagoon
Too deep to be known by you
Oh, I'm happily insane
Singin' a lonely tune
My echo bouncin' off the moon

Oh, I wonder if you'll ever become my boo
Will you?
Caution sign
Rip it off, fuck
