

surround me

Dora Jar

You surround me
I don't know why
All the loving makes me cry, mmm

You surround me
I'll never know
How to hold, then let you go, ohh
Ohh, ohhhh

I had no reason to live
Apart from making you laugh
It was a better time

And if you came back again
I think I would let you in Yeah, it's a fine line

And it's like that sometimes
Out of my right mind
I don't know what I would do without you

When I'm upside downside
And over skylines
Just hoping to get a better view
I'm hoping to get a better view
Hoping to get a better view, yeah

You, you
