

F The World

Dorian Electra

F the world 'cause I love it
F the world, wanna hug it
Tell the world I won't miss it
F the world, wanna kiss it
F the world 'cause you made me
F the world 'cause it pains me
F the world 'cause it hates me
F the world

F the world because I love it
F the world, I want to hug it
Tell the world I will not miss it
F the world, I want to kiss it
F the world because you made me
F the world because it pains me
F the world because it hates me
F the world so I can get laid

So my skull's not to measure
So there's no one to pleasure
So there's no more pretending
So I won't be ascending
F the world 'cause I'm ugly
F the world, you don't love me
F the world, out to get me
And soon you won't forget me

F the world because I love it
F the world, I want to hug it
Tell the world I will not miss it
F the world, I want to kiss it

We get our tickets on Fandango
They say, "It takes two to tango"
Put my hands around its neck
And then I strangle
Watch you burn out
Where'd your name go?
Fuck the world up, keep the noise down
Old man next door's gonna have a meltdown
Fuck the world up
Hit ya in the head with a coconut
All this constant yapping
I can't stand to hear your fucking noise
Empty egocentric wordplay
Or your fucking phoney poise

F the world, it's a damn joke
Whoever think different, they can suck it and damn choke
Talk to the hand, kiss my ass, want some damn coke
And if you can't take it, go get hung by a damn rope
Or get hit by a damn truck
I was just in love, come to find out the man sucked
Caught him on the streets, gunned him down, put his hands up
Maybe if I call him next time, he will answer

F the world, I cannot take it

F the world, I must embrace it
I've done things I can't take back, I
Wish that I just never made it
It's all my fault
That I'm stuck
In it all

F the world because I love it
F the world, I want to hug it
Tell the world I will not miss it
F the world so I can get laid

F the world because I love it
F the world, I want to hug it
Tell the world I will not miss it
F the world, I want to kiss it
F the world because you made me
F the world because it pains me
F the world because it hates me
F the world so I can get laid
