

I Believe in Dreams

Doris Day

I believe in dreams
My head is in the clouds
I know I'm quite the fool
I know, I know

It isn't sane, it isn't sensible
But what's to gain by being sensible?
When I'm all alone and wondering what to do
I close my eyes and dream I'm there with you

Then I'm no longer all alone
Strange as it seems
For I believe in dreams

Then I'm no longer all alone
Strange as it seems
For I believe in dreams
