Remind Me

Doris Day

Remind me not to find you so attractive Remind me that the world is full of men When I start to miss you, to touch your hand, to kiss you Remind me to count to ten

I had a feeling when I met you You'd drive me crazy if I let you But all my efforts to forget you Remind me I'm in love again

Not to mention that I love you

To be sorry that we met Although I adore you, remind me to ignore you You're one thing I will regret So when your charm begins to blind me I'll simply tie my hands behind me Don't let me kiss you, please remind me Unless, my darling, you forget
