

Brickwall

Doro

It's early in the morning
I'm still awake from last night
I didn't see the warning
The stars won't shine so bright

Didn't see it coming
Didn't think you'd leave in time
I thought it would be forever
But the tide would change your mind

Till the day I die
Till that day I'll fight
I'll be loving you more
Tearing down that brick wall
Till the day I die
Till that day I'll fight
I'll be loving you more
Tearing down that brick wall
Till the day I die

I think I've heard you call me
I know you're hurting deep inside
'Cause when we were together
We were blessed right by the light

I should have seen it coming
'Cause you were troubled all the time
I was hoping it's enough to love you
And I could change your mind

Till the day I die
Till that day I'll fight
I'll be loving you more
Tearing down that brick wall
Till the day I die
Till that day I'll fight
I'll be loving you more
Tearing down that brick wall

Oh, I would climb any mountain
Dive into the sea
Make it all up to you
'Cause prison doesn't mean a thing to me

(Till the day I die)
(Till that day I'll fight)
(I'll be loving you more)
(Tearing down that brick wall)
(Till the day I die)
(Till that day I'll fight)
(I'll be loving you more)
(Tearing down that brick wall)

(Till the day I die)
(Till that day I'll fight)
(I'll be loving you more)
(Tearing down that brick wall)

(Till the day I die)
(Till that day I'll fight)
(I'll be loving you more)
(Tearing down that brick wall)