

If I Can't Have You - No One Will

Doro

If I can't have you
No one will
'Cause you're mine forever
You're mine forever and a day

The line is very thin
Between love and hate
You know that you belong to me
You cannot fight your fate

Grief is the price you pay
You will be mine my way
Forever and a day, come what may
Oh, come what may

If I can't have you
Then nobody will
If I can't have you
Then no one will

'Cause you're mine

If I can't have you
Then nobody will
If I can't have you
Then no one will

'Cause you're mine, you're mine forever

I will give you everything
That you might need
All I ask in return
Is that you'll never leave

Grief is the price we pay
You will be mine my way
Forever and a day
Oh, come what may

If I can't have you
Then nobody will
If I can't have you
Then no one will

'Cause you're mine

If I can't have you
Then nobody will
'Cause you're mine forever

Oh, nobody will 'cause you're mine, you're mine forever

I can't have you
If I can't have you

Grief is the price you pay
You will be mine my way

Forever and a day, come what may
Oh, come what may

If I can't have you
Then nobody will
'Cause you're mine if I can't have you
Then no one will

If I can't have you
Then nobody will
Forever

If I can't have you
Then nobody will
'Cause you're mine,
You're mine

If I can't have you
Nobody will
If I can't have you
Nobody will

If I can't have you
Nobody will
If I can't have you
Nobody will

'Cause you're mine
You're mine, you're mine
Nobody will,
'Cause you're mine forever

If I can't have you
Nobody will
If I can't have you
Nobody will, no

If I can't have you
No one will
'Cause you're mine, you're mine
If I can't have you
No one will.
