

Rise

Doro

Come along, come with me, be the one that I need
Turn my world around and upside down
And all around
Leave behind all the weight of the world
All the tears and the hurt, never mind, we'll make it work
It'll be all right

'Cause we'll rise
Rise above and strive
Rising from the ashes
No defeat will hold us down
Now rise
Leave it all behind
No regrets for ashes
No regrets in my mind
We'll rise

Many times we choose the wrong path to lose
Got a lot to do, learning it the hard way
Hey-hey-hey
When your mind's so confused and your heart is bruised
Wanna know the truth, there's only one way
We gotta fight

'Cause we'll rise
Rise above and strive
Rising from the ashes
No defeat will hold us down
Now rise
Leave it all behind
No regrets for ashes
No regrets in my mind
We'll rise

'Cause we'll rise
Rise above and strive
Rising from the ashes
No defeat will hold us down
Now rise
Leave it all behind
No regrets for ashes
No regrets in my mind
We'll rise
