I was tempted Like a desperate child Sent out in the world to taste it

It was colder than steel Frozen in fields Emptied by the turning of pages

Falling like stone Over and over Falling alone Hold on hold on

Love, will save my soul someday Love, will save my soul someday

Take me away
Take me so far away
Love will save my soul someday

I was trusted like a heart of gold Walked out on this earth to make it Yea, I'm better than bad Stronger than sad Harder than the rock of ages

Fallin' like stones Over and over Falling alone Hold on, hold on

Love, will save my soul someday Love, will save my soul someday

Take me away
Take me so far away
Love will save my soul someday

Fallin' like stone Over and over Falling alone Hold on, oh hold on

Love, will save my soul someday Love, will save my soul someday

Take me away
Take me so far away
Love will save my soul

Love, will save my soul someday Love, will save my soul someday
