

And I shine and I shine when you think bout me
But baby what you know bout me
I know she's here for the clout but I don't give a shit
She want a fucking diamonds on her wrist
She's so fine, she pretty
Ass and titties
She the baddest and she know it
She want me so bad and I'm on it

She told me I got too much fucking bitches on my phone
But baby I know you're the only one I want
You're my angel, I'm your demon
Want your body any season
Baby, baby, drive me crazy, so we won't take it easy
Everything start when in the dark, I was walking
When far away from me, I saw the light rising
When so alone, desperate, I want to reach her
I saw this light, who in fact was nothing else then her
She turned to me, eliminate all my darkness
She turned to me, chasing my demon and my loneliness
My soul was an house of darkness, my spirit's tormented
But she told me that I wasn't alone and never isolated
And baby you're the one I want
The raison why I make it funny, and we don't give a damn
So shorty please don't listen, they talking bout the fame

And I shine and I shine when you think bout me
But baby what you know bout me
I know she's here for the clout but I don't give a shit
She want a fucking diamonds on her wrist
She's so fine, she pretty
Ass and titties
She the baddest and she know it
She want me so bad and I'm on it
