Wind blowing thru the drop top
I'm the man girl even when I'm not hot
So baby when u go shop
You can get it all here one stop

I don't it for my ego I just do it just because I got plenty reasons why I'm blessed girl let me be your plug
I can turn u to an addict let u treat me like a drug
I can hustle love and fuck u good
All of the above

I know it sound conceited but its really hard to find
A total package that got everything I'm so one of a kind
And my only side effect is I might make u lose your mind
You gon love me long time
Love me love me long time
This an open invitation for whoever wanna see
Trust me when I tell u this is where u wanna be
I may seem different when u see me in the streets
But I'm the man in my city yea I really got the key
Question?
Why take a piece when u can have the whole thang love
Why learn a lil when u can know the whole game love
I'm solid I don't need the money or the fame
I don't do it for the fame but the world know the name
