Cry

Dot Allison

You are frozen, you are fire
An endless ocean of dangerous desire
And we could melt an avalanche inside
And we could glow tonight like a fallen star

Just cry, I know the reason why
Yeah you cry this is the last goodbye

Like the dark night that draws you near
Like the sunlight dries my tear
And I am fallen, fallen like the rain
That floods a desert in your heart again

Just cry, I know the reason why
Yeah you cry this is the last goodbye
Just cry, I know the reason why
Yeah you cry this is the last goodbye

You are frozen, you are fire
An endless ocean of dangerous desire
And we could melt an avalanche inside
And we could glow tonight like a fallen star
