Dot Dot Curve :)

Okay, j wldd
I swallow all my pride
I swallow all my pride

You tryin' hard
I know I never shine of lie, but all I need is you
You by my side, I swallow all my pride
I swallow all my pride
I just need you by my side

You said I loved you and you know I did too
After all we've been through, I leave out of blue
What are you supposed to do? I guess you should a knew
It makes me sick, how can I just quit?
That was your heart, I heard you start my flirt
I ended this, no bliss
You should of just quit, look it what I did
Look it what I did, I did this, this is my fault
I lied, we died, you hide, you cry, you try, teary eye
[?], goodbye (Goodbye)
Goodbye, [?], goodbye (Goodbye)
Goodbye

You tryin' hard
I know I never shine of lie, but all I need is you
You by my side, I swallow all my pride
I swallow all my pride
I just need you by my side

My life's just not the same when you're not around
I miss your voice, I miss your sound
I left you in your six feet above the ground
I shoulda help and never walked away, now it's too late
I'm standin' on your grave, it makes me sick
Put my stomach, I need to vomit
Maybe this hand full of pills will help stop this Or maybe this bottle, this fuckin' liquor
Will help pull the trigger quicker and see the bigger picture
Lookin' at myself in the mirror, All figure shadow are lookin' at your photo
You're gonna kick it one, this is my overdose

You tryin' hard
I know I never shine of lie, but all I need is you
You by my side, I swallow all my pride
I swallow all my pride
I just need you by my side

All I need is you
You by my side, I swallow all my pride
I swallow all my pride
