Dot Dot Curve :)

I know I got some problems
Me plus me is the problem
Trying to fix what's broken
I'm trying to solve em
I'm drowning in myself
I'm just trying to swim
I can't escape
Emotions flooded in
Cry baby cryin' I can't escape
I'm chokin'
Trying to put my feet back on the ground
These thoughts in my head
Unspoken, I just

I don't wanna talk now
Everyone's so fake
I feel like I'm a fool
I just keep my head down
I got a lot of problems
I don't know how to solve em
I feel like I'm a breakdown
Yea
I'm a breakdown
I need a break now
I can't fucking stand it I'm a break out
Problems everyone got problems
Tell me now how can we solve it

I'm standin' in the rain, ink bleedin' out my skin
Tryna wash away the fights where nobody wins
I'm screamin' at the sky, voice lost in the storm
Our love's a battleground, but what are we fightin' for
I'm at the edge, but I won't leap
Got your name tattooed too deep
I'm shoutin' out, but it's like you're sound asleep
I'm right here, girl, but you're lost in the sea
Cause baby, I'm sorry, for every missed call
For the words left unsaid, and the times I dropped the ball
But if you be patient, I can make it better
I'm singin' for us, let me piece us together
Oh baby, I'm sorry, for the tears that fell
For the nights so cold, and the days that felt like hell
Just give me a chance, and you'll see
I'm not givin' up on you, don't give up on me

I don't wanna talk now
Everyone's so fake
I feel like I'm a fool
I just keep my head down
I got a lot of problems
I don't know how to solve em
I feel like I'm a breakdown
Yea
I'm a breakdown
I need a break now
I can't fucking stand it I'm a break out
Problems everyone got problems

Tell me now how can we solve it

Tell me now how can we solve it
