Found Lost

Dot Hacker

Maybe you can see
Something no one else can
Maybe you've spent
Two sides of the same coin

Dimension questions
Direct my way
Too many questions
About where I may be
I've been found lost
I've been found lost

The race may be one/won by staying as far away as we can

We've overcome so much just to find you there You're not lost you're stading in our way

Come in first and lost
Compasses so off
Too many born lost
We can't lose this way
Anyway I'm here lost
Gone to find a way
Once I'm gone I'll never
Come this way again
I've been found lost
Found myself lost

All is not lost Just tell me where you are In your own voice Come on in your own voice

Where'd you find this loss You must love being lost Darken reflections You can't guide anyway How are you not lost Everywhere I'm lost
