

Mission Creep

Dot Hacker

It's not a matter of seeing
Once it's in it's not leaving
From this day onwards
It's a way of being
I ask you please
[??]
(But you just couldn't help yourself)

What are we ever seeing
With no real plans to leave
More time, more being
Until we find our way home

I hope you've seen my masterpiece
All of these lies and what they mean
Nothing to do with what I see
Nothing to do with entries
Sky rocket someone

Can anyone hear me
When I scream from the [??]
I hope you can
See that way
They are around you
Please, will you go?
This is hard, it's always been
Pieces gone with me
Hope you know
Sure you see
Better off
Without me
You know
I hope you see

Cos you will not hear it from me
The worlds gone [??]
