

Whatever You Want

Dot Hacker

Whatever you say is so
Careful how you proceed
What you wish for
They know

Words that break bones
Bones pick their moments
Like glass houses pick stones

Should I be hammered home
Do I relate to the choice to Condem or condone

Give me a chance
A fighting one
To atone
Whatever you say is already known

Why are you so opposed
You're so brazen
With you're being alone

It's all for the taking, no?
Whatever you start over
You always keep the dead close

You want dramatic pause
To rewrite laws
Your cover's blown
Whatever you say is already known

I see you walking away
See the back of my hand
Already turned away
You can do whatever you want

You alone could save the day
If it wouldn't kill you to say
One wrong move
It could set it off I see
You fortifying
You wanna battle me

Whatever you say knows
Exactly what it is
That's why you can't let it go

Give me a chance to go
Where my heart will
Without thinking you know

Whatever you break you own
It's no accident I'm prone
To go agaisnt everything that I know
You can
Whatever you want
