Bones

Dotan

Time is shaking
Feel it in my bones
Take me home
Eyes are waking
Time to let it go
It's long, long gone

Scars keep running through
But all that's left is you

You restless heart
You came this far
Why did you lose?
You restless heart
You're in the dark
Why did you lose?

Lights are fading
Creeping in my lungs
It's all undone
Glass is breaking
Turning into stone
These cold, cold bones

Scars keep running through
But all that's left is you

You restless heart
You came this far
Why did you lose?
You restless heart
You're in the dark
Why did you lose?

You restless heart
You came this far
Why did you lose?
You restless heart
You're in the dark
Why did you lose?
