

Last Goodbyes

Dotan

Burn my lungs
Steal my breath
Chase my ghosts
Oh my silhouettes
Drown my body
Keep my heart
But I keep coming back
To where you are

I will hold the pieces that we broke

Is it half way gone
Are we half alive
We can hardly hide
We keep holding on to last goodbyes

Broken shores
And these golden nights
Let the seasons fight
We keep holding on to last goodbyes

Save my words
Slow regrets
Cut the rope
Til it's running fast
Carbon copy
Of our start
'Cause I keep circling round
To where you are

I will hold the pieces that we broke

Is it halfway gone
Are we half alive
We can hardly hide
We keep holding on to last goodbyes

Broken shores
And these golden nights
Let the seasons fight
We keep holding on to last goodbyes

Holding on to last goodbyes

Running from the hopeless
Running till we can't
If our fate is open
Where do we begin

Running from the hopeless
Running till we can't
If our fate is broken
Where do we begin
Where do we begin

Is it halfway gone
Are we half alive

We can hardly hide
We keep holding on to last goodbyes

Broken shores
And these golden nights
Let the seasons fight
We keep holding on

Is it halfway gone
Are we half alive
We can hardly hide
We keep holding on to last goodbyes

Broken shores
And these golden nights
Let the seasons fight
We keep holding on to last goodbyes

Holding on to last goodbyes
