

Aladdin

Dounia

You Aladdin, I'm lounging on your hammock in the sky
Love forbidden 'cause nobody expected us aligned
Stay up, roll up, play up, pray up
Nobody can convince me you a wasteman, player
Take off my crown, let my hair down, strip down for you
Cause I'm so down for you
Go out and paint love letters on the town for you
Orange and scarlet blue
I thought it would be cute

Something 'bout my R made you ashamed
Something 'bout my innocence brought out your rage
I guess I must have just looked kind of insane
Tell 'em that you love me just the same
You burned the evidence, wiped every trace
Wonder if you're just a story mama made
There's no limits to what I can create
Wonder if you're just a story mama made

You Aladdin, I'm lounging on your hammock in the sky
Love forbidden 'cause nobody expected us aligned (Aligned, aligned)
Stay up, roll up (Roll up, roll up)
Showed me your magic lamp, said if I shrunk I'll fit
And be with you till the end of all of it
And I obliged (Obliged)

You Aladdin, I'm lounging on your hammock in the sky
Love forbidden 'cause nobody expected us aligned (Us aligned, us aligned)
Stay up, roll out

Something 'bout my R made you ashamed
Something 'bout my innocence brought out your rage
I guess I must have just looked kind of insane
Tell 'em that you love me just the same
You burned the evidence, wiped every trace
Wonder if you're just a story mama made
There's no limits to what I can create
Wonder if you're just a story mama made

'Cause I'll take every lie, 'long as I collide wit' you
Let you hold me down, promise I could fly wit' you
Oh oh oh, oh oh oh
(You burned the evidence, wiped every trace
Wonder if you're just a story mama made
There's no limits to what I can create
Wonder if you're just a story mama made)
