

Dressed Up

Dounia

I ain't tryna be melodic when I sing to him I'm plotting
Can't communicate so this how I'm airing out our problems
Why you never pay me compliments
Why you think I got enough of them

Well they can say what they want and it don't mean much
Dressed up just for you and you ain't say nun
Damn your love overdue it ain't worth the fuss
Don't think this worth the fuss
Yeah they can say what they want and it don't mean much
Dressed up just for you and you ain't say nun
Damn your love overdue it ain't worth the fuss
It ain't worth the fuss
They can say what they want and it don't mean much
Dressed up just for you and you ain't say nun
Then your love overdue it ain't worth the fuss
It ain't worth the fuss

Never jealous just attentive to the havoc you be wrecking, yeah I reckon
I been second guessing ever since you mentioned other ones, another one
If I ain't conquer your attention, have your fun
Miss me with the mind games, undermining no
I don't need the nonsense, shit turn into past tense, bending over backwards got me doing handstands

Ain't play hard to get, I just am
Falsely analyzing, bring my sign in, God damn
God damn
That's the shit I can't stand
Say I'm busy I don't gotta pretend
Said he lost me to the hustle well I'm humbled amen amen
Amen no men
He got a cut, I can't mend, can't mend

They can say what they want and it don't mean much
Dressed up just for you and you ain't say nun
Damn your love overdue it ain't worth the fuss
It ain't worth the fuss
They can say what they want and it don't mean much
Dressed up just for you and you ain't say nun
Damn your love overdue it ain't worth the fuss
It ain't worth the fuss

Why I keep misreading signs
Why I live between the lines
Why it took you one night and to him I stopped replyin
Why I never want what's there
Why I never want what want me?
Why I laughed it off when he said he think he love me?
A masochist I must be, why I wanna crash?
Why I wanna chase knowing damn well I'm the catch?
Why I wanna stay detached, never wanna give a chance?
