

Everything Hurts

Dounia

I know you want us to be happy
Let's be honest, I'll just put it on a sailboard
I'm an artist, it's the opposite of stable
But it's fun though, ain't it fun though? (Ain't it fun?)
On go, please don't fuck with the work flow
All cap, boy you know that I'm on tour
You, shut
Everytime you speak I'm just like "Shh, shh, shh" Real love that was all I was in for Then I turn to [?] ignore
So cold it hurt

Would you be mad if I just said I wanted some company (Some company)
Keep changing my mind, now you don't feel right but it's honest
y (Baby honesty)

Spare yourself and don't reflect if you don't want to You better off with fly souls to move onto Better off, not growing from it, just stay dumb
Better in the nights, where all of it just haunts you
I'm doing the work and everything hurts
And everything hurts
I'm doing the work and everything hurts (Everything hurts)
Baby everything hurts

Would you be mad if I just said I wanted some company (Some company)
Keep changing my mind, now you don't feel right but it's honest
y (Baby honesty)
