

GLOOM

Dounia

Yeah, I'm an angel
Dark cloud, I fuck around though
I clip my wings put on a dress and hit the town up
I'm in the club I'm dancing like no one's around love

I'm glammed up in my gloom
Punk performance in my room
I know how to set a mood
Now I'm left craving a you

Back on the east side
Floating in the meantime
I won't wake up if I do not feel like it
I could show you heaven if I feel like it
Up all night assessing why I feel this

Easy vibes, you pull up, kick it w the fam
All the extra shit, politics, never been a fan
Drifting, hot balloon
Stuck on me like superglue
Won't think twice, I'll devise really such a plan
You and I, one way flight, I'll surprise you where we land

Easier to find a cruise
Than to find a good excuse

Yea I'm an angel
Dark cloud, I fuck around though
I clip my wings put on a dress and hit the town up
I'm in the club I'm dancing like no one's around love

I'm glammed up in my gloom
Punk performance in my room
I know how to set a mood
Now I'm left craving a you

We mixing different I like I like it cannot lie
Yea something's clicking I'm blushing a hundred Fahrenheit
Been had these feelings soon as recognized they magnify
Thats why I do the most to push you to back of my mind
I'd do it all to prove that I'm the one
Commit a thousand crimes
Steal all they trumpet-shaped accolades
Do it a thousand times
I'ma see the visions that I've dreamt
To any extent
Yeah they try to make me doubt it
I tried too, I really can't
So much money I can't count it
Mid-fantasy, 4 am
When I'm lounging in new lingerie
And dub your call again

I'm still tryna feel a 10
Even when
I'm inconsistent with my wins
Can't tell who my friends are

I'm still tryna feel a 10
When nobody listening
Only me myself again

Yea I'm an angel
Dark cloud, I fuck around though
I clip my wings put on a dress and hit the town up
I'm in the club I'm dancing like no one's around love

I'm glammed up in my gloom
Punk performance in my room
I know how to set a mood
Now I'm left craving a you
