

Hard Questions Freestyle

Dounia

They ain't wanna see my lows
I know, that you different tho, I know
They ain't wanna see me cry
I hope that you different tho, I hope
Baby, where'd you come from
You're heaven sent, just bliss
Feel like it all just led me up to this
Shit is crazy so the bullshit, can we skip
But Imma have to ask all the hard questions

Would you fuck with me if nobody did?
Can we build a love that could move mountains?
Baby is you widdit, is you really about it?
Baby is you widdit, is you really about it?
Will you still see me when they misunderstand?
When I meet chaos, will you hold my hand?
I know you a king, never met nobody like you
Can I really trust 'cause bae I'd really like to?

So fun, so fun the vibes you give
So abundant the vibes you give
I'm cautious now
I cannot lie
I opened up, they tried to dim my light
But they were bugging
They don't know love
They don't know what they were missing
Yeah, they were bugging
They don't know love
They don't know what they were missing
I'm a deep girl, my petty hurts
I've come to understand the weight of my words
Big heart, just can't be wifed right now
Gotta prove something to myself first
