

No, I don't need you but I fuck with you heavy, yeah
Baby, pull up and we'll make love when we ready, yeah
Rather level up than be stuck on level-headed
Can we just go with flow, do we gotta know where we heading? Uh

Too busy coming across to be
Too worried bout how I'm coming across, yeah I'm
Too busy coming across to be
Too worried bout how I'm coming across, yeah I'm

Yeah, I knew where I was going, mighta played coy
To see where you intentions were, playboy
I know I'm far ahead of 'em, it's dumb clear
Don't care to brag, no, it's just something that I enjoy

I don't play games no, I'm natural chaotic
Keep you on edge, I felt love then forgot it
Deep in my lane, I see shyne, bae, I'm on it
And though you keep talking
It all sound dishonest

Knew where I was going, mighta played coy
To see where you intentions were, playboy
I know I'm far ahead of 'em, it's dumb clear
Don't mean to brag, no, it's just something that I enjoy

It be so good, why we always gotta lose it?
And the arguing gets louder than the music
I be so good, I be feeling like a saint
Till my ego come through, confused
At the picture that I paint, uh
Feel like I'm perfect balance, wild and chill
The fact that we reflections really is the hardest pill, yeah
Life a big trip, really I don't need a drug
If you need that natural high, shorty, you know I'm the plug, y eah
Watch how you talk, I'm a goddess and I'm soft, and I
Been through enough, I'on need no tough love, yeah
Life a big trip, really I'on need a drug
If you need that natural high, shorty, you know I'm the plug

(Knew where I was going, mighta played coy
To see where you intentions were, playboy
I know I'm far ahead of 'em, it's dumb clear
Don't mean to brag, no, it's just something that I enjoy)
