

You need a challenge, you need a Douns, oh
You need a challenge, you need a challenge

You need a challenge, you need a Douns
I'm lackin' balance, turn the game into my palace
Where the throne, ho? I'ma snatch out of malice
Talk cash, rubber band snaps as my ad-libs
Rich boo, I'ma hit him when I'm richer
Popped up 'cause damn I really missed her
I spoil though I'm disloyal
Only 'cause I feel so muthafuckin' royal

Who better for you than your girl? Uh-huh
Who better for the show, for the soul, nah
Who better for you than your girl? Uh-huh
Uh-huh

Champagne dreams and manmade bodies
Gaze so sweet, I'm starry-eyed regardless
Eyes on the prize and yes I, I love it
Don't act so surprised, you know I can't trust it
Withdraw from the basic you've been hearin' daily
Know you wanna sweet talk, nobody can make me
Nobody can make me, yeah
Yeah yeah, I think you need inspirin'
All these simple minded shorties are conspirin' against me
Against me, yeah
I'm in a weird mood, don't inquire 'bout what I do
You'll find out soon, sooner than you'd like to Sooner than you'd like to
I like out-doin' my own thoughts
Escape my own box, twisting my own plot
Somethin' fittin' 'bout the top spot, I need that
When I get it then I'll stay there, believe that
Maybe I got a little dangerous
20 sum' chasin' somethin' they cannot grasp
Givin' me advice, that's somethin' that I ain't ask for

You need a challenge, you need a Douns
I'm lackin' balance, turn the game into my palace
Where the throne, ho? I'ma snatch out of malice
Talk cash, rubber band snaps as my ad-libs
Rich boo, I'ma hit him when I'm richer
Popped up 'cause damn I really missed her
I spoil though I'm disloyal
Only 'cause I feel so mothafuckin' royal

Who better for you than your girl? Uh-huh

Who better for the show, for the soul nah
