

Shooting Comets

Dounia

Something weird is up
Dounia fell in love
Dounia's finding it even harder to give a fuck
About y'all like why you calling?
If it's not cash then I don't wanna talk
Now you see me lit so you wanna hit me up
Yeah, of course you wanna hit me up

Just wanna be left alone with you
Wanna be left alone with you

It's easy for me to be honest
Midnight thoughts trail off lie sonnets
What I bring rare like shooting comets
So I float high above all the comments
Rare shorty I know I'm uncommon
You should be honored I'm in your office
I'll find my way to the main topic
And I been finding myself in the process

I'll sunbathe while the rain falling
Wash away all the brain washing
'Cause bae you know they keep talking
I'ma keep brushing it off I promise
Really it's fuck them
I don't care who is looking
I don't care how they feel about it
It's just us even when we're surrounded
It's a new energy I carry
And they wanna be around it
Not sure what I was looking for
But I think I found it

I Just wanna be left alone with you
Wanna be left alone with you

Dounia figured it out, she's wide awake
I'm wide awake
You don't mind when I'm away
'Cause you know we got a solid base
Time on my side they can stay bugging all day, fuck it
Let's draw out the foreplay, yeah fuck it
Lyrics fa I'ma just melt in this escape
Take a break from the game chaotic arcade
I'm not playing I think I'm in love
Oh is that what they all say?
But do they make it sound this good
I'ma make love feel like it should
