

So Cool

Dounia

I'm a wrong that'll taste
Sweet as the lies that'll drive her insane
She want validating, way to your place
All you have are some lines that you regurgitate, yeah
She ain't cut out for your good time or your nightlife
But she down, so she might try
She might conjure up a white lie for you
She just wanna look like a fun time to you
She just wanna be your playroom
That you turn to when the sun down
When you wanna turn down, when you burnt out
Keep some loud for you back at her house, yeah
She just wanna be your dream girl
Real cool, never be a mean girl
Never call like, "Why you with that one girl?"
She don't wanna be like them girls

Hey, look, I'm so different
Watch me fight all of my instincts for you
I'm so cool, yeah
Hey, look, I'm so different
Watch how well I handle distance for you
I'm so cool, yeah

Why don't I give you a welcome tour?
I got my brain right here, I keep my heart next door
And I keep it chained down all it do is coerce
Manipulate some more
Cloud my reason, treason, where the remorse?
If it break out, man down, I couldn't perform
He a sadist, it's the only explanation
Wear my smile out, glue it up for decoration
Overindulged now I'm sulking in probation
Tried to abstain but I'm prone to misbehaving
Forbidden fruit call me eve if you please
Ain't your fountain of youth, though, I'm drained to say the least
I'm the beauty, I'm the beast, it depends on the feast
It depends on the feast
I'm the beauty, I'm the beast, it depends on the feast

Hey, look, I'm so different
Watch me fight all of my instincts for you
I'm so cool, yeah
Hey, look, I'm so different
Watch how well I handle distance for you
I'm so cool, yeah

I just want you to need me, darling
Come through just to see me, darling
We can try it out, there's no real harm in me
Harm in me
I just want you to come undone now
Wanna seduce the armor off now
I just want you to stick around for me
'Round for me

Hey, look, I'm so different

Watch me fight all of my instincts for you
I'm so cool, yeah
Hey, look, I'm so different
Watch how well I handle distance for you
I'm so cool, yeah
