

TOXIC

Dounia

I could be your favorite
I could be your favorite
I could- I could be your favorite
Yeah

Imagine I was invested
That'd prolly be interestin' for you
Heard a beat and I blessed it
That's nothin' really too drastic to do
Oh, you on a high now?
Feeling like hot shit (Hot)
I'm not good for the ego
Come to think of it, I'm toxic

You throw cash like a cool mist
Flex up 'til you feel sick
Flex up tryna appetize
'Til I lose my appetite
It don't matter how you feel
She still wanna flick
You just wanna hear
Something that'll stick
Coming off strong
I don't really mix
And I don't really care 'cause

I'm that bitch to my knowledge, yeah
Catalogue flawless, yeah
I'm a boss and my schedule packed so I don't make time for no novice, yeah
East coast to the west
I'm a beast so fuck it I'ma go and eat regardless, yeah
I'ma zoom to the top while they melt in defeat
See the look on they face?
That's a bonus

You a bozo
All your shit's bogus
I know you never heard a flow this
Unnervin'
Don't leave room for competition
Finish 'em hopeless
They be huddled talking down on a girl
Pull up, split it up like Moses
Brought the life to the crowd
All the haters turned around
Now they crownin' a girl, throwin' roses

You a sheep you were sleep but I been known this
Never let a bum shorty throw me off focus
I been on my grind for some time now
They were slow now they take notice
I stay low but I'm sought out
So a fly girl stay posted, yeah
Shorty really bugged out
If she think an opponent

Imagine I was invested

That'd prolly be interestin' for you
Heard a beat and I blessed it
That's nothing really too drastic to do
Oh, you on a high now?
Feeling like hot shit
Come to think of it, I'm toxic

Toxic, toxic
Come to think of it, I'm toxic
Toxic, toxic
Come to think of it, I'm toxic
Toxic, toxic
Come to think of it, I'm toxic
Toxic, toxic
(Come to think of it I'm-)

I could be your favorite
I could- I could be your favorite
Yeah
Come to think of it I'm-
