

Sailing

Douwe Bob

Oh, I'm sailing away
To where I'll be in peace, they say
Don't you worry, I'll be all right
Just let me tell you this ain't goodbye

So don't be missing me, I will be around
I know you cannot see or hear me now
But I'm still there, the heart is where
I'm simply sailing, my dear

Mm, when you're lonely, look up at night
Look at the stars, you'll see I'm not that far
The wind is my voice, the sun's my smile
Well, I'll be seeing you in a while

So don't be missing me, I will be around
I know you cannot see or hear me now
But I'm still there, the heart is where
I'm simply sailing, my dear

My boat is getting smaller
As I'm heading on, all eyes on Pretty soon the waves will
Guide me out of sights
But let me reassure you now that
You'll rise and you know what's right
So when you close them eyes
Pretend me by your side

Don't be missing me, I will be around
I know you cannot see or hear me now
But I'm still there, the heart is where
So don't you miss me, dear
'Cause I'll never leave, disappear

Ooh
Here
